

Yang Shutong | Interior Designer

Location: Wenzhou

Mobile: +86-13676784191

Email: yangshut@kean.edu

Professional Profile

“As a recent BFA graduate of Wenzhou-Kean University’s Interior Design program, having enough passion for design.” Skilled in the production of high-quality design concepts and strategies, with the ability to utilize SketchUp for the successful creation of new ideas and concepts, the development of interactive designs, and the redefinition of design briefs. Possesses the capacity to identify fresh approaches and customer requirements to deliver fascinating interior decoration services and achieve client satisfaction.

Core Skills

- Computer-Aided Design (CAD)
- Lighting / Color Schemes
- SketchUp Pro
- Textiles and Materials
- Conceptual Designs
- 2D and 3D Design Tools
- Design Strategies / Concepts

Career Summary

September 2020 – May 2023 Wenzhou-Kean University
Resident Assistant

Outline

Organize campus activities to solve students' problems, form an apartment culture, and promote students to be more united and friendly.

Key Responsibilities

- Design and produce social media posts, posters, and merchandise.
- Organize large-scale campus events.
- Help students solve relevant problems.

Key Achievements

- The related products designed have been used by the school for a long time.
- 2020-2021 Outstanding Performance as Resident Assistant Award, WKU
- 2021-2022 Outstanding Performance as Resident Assistant Award, WKU

June 2022 – July 2022 RIGI Design
Interior Design Assistant Intern

Outline

Assist an interior designer to collaborate and complete a project.

Key Responsibilities

- Attended client meetings to establish decor requirements and employed AutoCAD and various 3D design tools to formulate tailored project proposals in alignment with client budgets, tastes, and timeframes.

